Classification: Public

NatWest Group plc

Disclosure for Global Systemically Important Banks (G-SIB) Indicators as of 31 December 2025.

NatWest Group plc is no longer currently classified as a G-SIB however disclosure obligations require the Group to continue to report G-SIB indicators to the national authority, the Prudential Regulatory Authority.

The Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) assesses the systemic importance of banks with the current BCBS methodology relying upon an indicator-based measurement approach. The selected indicators reflect the size of the bank, its interconnectedness, the lack of readily available substitutes or financial institution infrastructure for the services it provides, its global (cross-jurisdictional) activity and its complexity. The selected indicators are chosen to reflect the different aspects of what generates negative externalities and makes a bank critical for the stability of the financial system and global economy.
